From the Desk of Rabbi Steinmetz

Dear Friends,

As we prepare to usher in the High Holidays, my heart is filled with excitement and hope. This sacred season invites us to renew ourselves, our families, and our community. Last year, Hurricane Milton disrupted our ability to gather, reminding us how precious it is to come together. This year, with gratitude to G-d, we look forward to celebrating side by side once again.

We have planned a vibrant array of programs to inspire, uplift, and connect: our unique Rosh Hashanah Survival Service to bring meaning and accessibility to the prayers; festive gatherings like Soup in the Sukkah and Sushi in the Sukkah; the joyful dancing of Simchat Torah; and a creative Friday Night Hat Night that promises both fun and inspiration.

I warmly encourage you to spread the word and invite your friends and neighbors to join us at the friendliest shul in Sarasota. Let's fill this new year with warmth, friendship, and the joy of Jewish tradition.

May this year bring blessings of health, joy, and peace to you and your loved ones.

With heartfelt wishes for a Shana Tova U'Metuka,

Rabbi Chaim Steinmetz

Help Us Prepare For the High Holidays

The High Holidays mark the busiest and most meaningful season at Chabad and our success truly depends on you. By lending a hand as a volunteer, you can make a real difference, helping to ensure that every participant enjoys a warm and uplifting holiday experience. We invite you to join in by choosing from a variety of volunteer opportunities. Each shift is about two hours or less, or you may also choose to participate by sponsoring an Oneg. Your involvement will help create an atmosphere of welcome and joy for all who come through our doors during this special season. Please call the office to share your commitment to help.

Ushers prior and during services

Assist in welcoming members and guests as they arrive at the Chabad Center. Each shift will last for a 90-minute period.

Oneg preparation

Assist with the setup before each Oneg that follows the service.

Oneg sponsorship

Sponsor a Rosh Hashanah Oneg or the Yom Kippur break the fast for $360.

Children's Program

Assist with the children's programming that takes place during services.

Sukkah Builders

Help build the Sukkah on Sunday, September 28th, at 9:00 am. No building skills are necessary.

Please call the office at 925-0770 if you'd like to assist or have any ideas you'd like us to implement.

Rabbi Steinmetz Embarks on Path to Dayan Ordination

A heartfelt congratulations is extended to Rabbi Chaim Steinmetz for undertaking the rigorous journey toward achieving the advanced ordination of a Dayan (Jewish Judge). In Jewish tradition, there are two levels of ordination: standard rabbinical ordination (semicha) and the higher ordination of a Dayan, enabling one to serve as a judge in a Jewish court of law. This endeavor is a serious four-year commitment of weekly study and training, culminating in ordination as a Dayan. We wish Rabbi Steinmetz much success in this important undertaking, which will surely bring great honor and benefit to our community.

Seventh Annual Longevity Symposium

On April 24, 2025 participants gathered at Michael's On East for the seventh annual Dr. Schwartzbaum Longevity Symposium—a meaningful tribute to the late Dr. Leonard Schwartzbaum and a resounding success. The event was chaired by Dr. Barry Stein and presented in partnership with Aviva Senior Living, with generous support from 14 sponsors.

Featured speakers Rabbi Aaron Glatt, MD; Manuel Gordillo, MD; and Amanda Stahl, MA, delivered engaging and insightful presentations on future trends in aging and best practices for healthy living. Attendees enjoyed outstanding service and gourmet cuisine provided by Michael's On East.

We extend heartfelt thanks to our sponsors, whose support made this event possible: Alan Levin, Aviva Senior Living, Bay Village, Family Practice Associates, Jeff and Nikki Sedacca, Judith Schwartzbaum, Kennedy-White Orthopedic Center, Plymouth Harbor, Sarasota Memorial Health Care System, and Senior Blue Book.

Plans are already in motion for next year's symposium, "AI and My Health," scheduled for Thursday, April 23, 2026, once again at Michael's On East.

SARASOTA MIKVAH

Renovation & Rejuvenation

Since 2000, the Sarasota Community Mikvah has been the only Mikvah serving Sarasota-Manatee and surrounding counties.

Its peaceful beauty and welcoming charm have attracted locals, visitors, and snowbirds alike, who have toured and immersed in its sacred waters.

Over the years, the Mikvah has served hundreds of women and brides. Today, after more than two decades, we are undertaking much-needed renovations and upgrades, both to address natural wear and to meet modern standards of comfort and design.

The Mikvah's sanctity in Jewish life is profound. Jewish law even permits selling a Sefer Torah or synagogue to fund its construction.

We invite you to partner with us in this sacred endeavor and ensure that our Mikvah continues to be a source of purity, inspiration, and spiritual renewal for generations to come.

To sponsor or participate in the Mikvah Renovation Campaign, please visit: SarasotaChabad.com or call: (941) 925.0770

In Loving Memory of Eliana Etel Simcha Stupp

Sadly, a tragedy has struck our community with the passing of Eliana Etel Simcha Stupp, beloved daughter of Dr. Elliott and Evelyn Stupp, and sister of Gabrielle and Naomi. During this time of deep grief, our community came together to support the Stupp family, providing meals during the Shiva period, and joining in prayer, good deeds, and Tzedakah in Eliana's memory, may her soul be bound in everlasting life. We extend heartfelt gratitude to all those who stepped forward to help bring comfort and strength to the family. The following individuals graciously assisted:

Alain Abitan	Ted Simon
Daniel & Tseza Benjamin	Ruth Sklar
Jodi Bloom	Barry & Anne Stein
Mindy & Marty Bloom	Maureen Stupp
Richard & Sheila Brumberg	Mitchell Stupp

Rosh Hashanah SURVIVAL SERVICE

An engaging, inclusive & interactive
Rosh Hashanah experience for the whole family

Are the High Holiday services boring for you?
Is it because you don't read Hebrew or don't understand what you're saying?
This year, we have a solution for you. We call it:

THE SURVIVAL SERVICE

Chabad of Sarasota is offering a 45-minute Rosh Hashanah service in English. During this service, you will be introduced to several interesting prayers. You will learn who composed them, why they are recited on Rosh Hashanah, and have the opportunity to pray in English. The service will be conducted by Rabbi Chaim Steinmetz.

Wednesday, September 24 • 9:30-10:15 am • Free of Charge • At Chabad
Babysitting available for ages 3-5 • Pray & Play program for ages 5 and up
